

Missing and Exploited Children Training and Technical Assistance Program

Performance Measures

The Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA), Public Law 103–62, requires that recipients of federal grant awards collect, analyze, and report data that measure the results of strategies implemented with federal funds. To ensure compliance with GPRA, OJJDP requires grantees to collect and report data which measure the results of the program implemented with this grant. The following performance measures are required:

Program Goal/Objective	Performance Measures	Data to Be Reported
The primary deliverables and work products will be the development of specific training programs, technical assistance and materials to law enforcement, missing and abducted children organizations, and other service providers. The deliverables should be directed toward the continuation, expansion, and enhancement of the Department of Justice's Missing and Exploited Children program.	Outputs:
	Percentage of training events for which participant evaluation data are entered in the information management system.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of training events for which participant evaluation data are entered in the information management system compared to the total number of training events, reported in a given rating period.
	Percent of participants who rated training as “good” or “excellent.”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of participants who rated training as “good” or “excellent” compared to the total number of participants.
	Number of technical assistance requests received and fulfilled.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of technical assistance requests received, reported in a given rating period. Number of technical assistance requests filled, reported in a given rating period.

	Number of program materials developed (training curricula, publications, resource documents).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of program materials developed, reported in a given rating period.
	Total number of training events.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Total number of training events, reported in a given rating period.
	Number of hours of training provided.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of hours of training provided, reported in a given rating period
	Number of persons trained.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of persons trained, reported in a given rating period.

Recipients' assistance in obtaining this information will facilitate future program planning and will allow OJP to provide Congress with measurable program results of federally funded programs.